Our maths courses can help you feel more confident in working with numbers and solving problems. Whether you are helping with your child's homework, calculating your household budget, or tackling data at work, we have something to support everyone.

Our English and maths courses are FREE to anyone who has never previously achieved a Grade 4 or Grade C, at GCSE level.

Finding the right course for you

Before enrolling on one of our English and maths courses you will need to complete a short assessment to help us gauge your current working level. This will allow us to match you to a course at the right level for you. You will also be offered an informal chat with a member of our English and maths team to find the best course for you, discuss your next steps, and tell us about any support you may need.
